AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS

SATURDAY 8 SEPTEMBER 8PM

This play is an epic, funny, madcap adaptation of the classic novel by Jules Verne.

Set in 1872, the story opens with a bank robbery, and then follows Phileas Fogg and his newly acquired valet, Mr Passepartout on their adventure as they attempt to travel the world in 80 days, all the while being pursued by Scotland Yard.

"It's such a healthy dose of Monty Python nonsense that keeps the adults tickled while the slapstick is laid on thick for the children and... it's a merrily entertaining trip for all on board."
